

Belong. Serve. Impact.

Explore membership on our Auxiliary Board.

The Lawrence Hall Auxiliary Board is a dedicated group of volunteers who support youth at Lawrence Hall by creating joyful celebrations for milestones, holidays, and special events throughout the year.

What We Do

- Organize holiday celebrations and seasonal events
- Plan special activities and experiences for youth
- Support programs that bring joy and connection to children and families

The Youth We Serve

- Lawrence Hall's Child and Family Treatment Center (CFTC) is a 24-hour residential treatment center that provides compassionate care and individualized treatment plans for young people experiencing emotional challenges and complex trauma.

Why YOU Should Join

- You will make a direct difference in children's lives
- You will be part of a passionate and supportive volunteer community
- You will give back in a meaningful and rewarding way

Fundraise to Support Lawrence Hall's Youth

- Auxiliary Board members drive fundraising efforts to enable Lawrence Hall to continue providing programs and services towards healing, stability, and growth for everyone who comes through the doors.

HOW TO GET STARTED

- Complete our online volunteer application
- Submit background check and fingerprints (required due to contact with DCFS youth in care)
- Interview with our Board President

MEMBER CONTRIBUTION

Each Auxiliary Board member contributes $100 as an annual donation, helping fund activities and celebrations for the youth at Lawrence Hall.
